

CHETANA FOUNDATION
CHETANA COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
Approved by PCI - New Delhi, DTE - Mumbai, Recognized by Govt. of Maharashtra

Affiliated to DBATU-Lonere & MSBTE-Mumbai

|| DTE 16103 | PCI 8418 | MSBTE 22486 ||

SAVITRIBAI PHULE JAYANTI

Friday, 03rd January 2025

REPORT

Objective:

The objective of this event was to celebrate the birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule, a pioneering figure in women's education and social reform. The program aimed to educate students about her contributions to society, particularly her efforts to promote girls' education and women's empowerment. By commemorating her legacy, the event sought to inspire students to uphold the values of equality and social justice in their personal and professional lives.

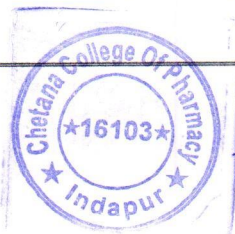

Chetana College of Pharmacy (CCOP) celebrated the birthday of Savitribai Phule on 3rd January 2025, a significant occasion to honor the contributions of one of India's foremost social reformers. The event, held at 11:00 am, brought together faculty, students, and staff to reflect on her life and achievements. The program began with an insightful address by Dr. S. A. Desai, Vice-Principal of CCOP, Sardewadi. In his speech, Dr. Desai elaborated on the monumental impact Savitribai Phule had in the field of education and social reform. He stated, "Savitribai Phule was the first woman to stand alone for girls' education. She took great efforts to make women educated and established the first girls' school in Pune. In her honor, we celebrate this day to remember her invaluable contributions to society and education."

Several students delivered speeches on the topic "Contribution of Savitribai Phule." The speeches focused on Savitribai's early life, her challenges in the patriarchal society, and her unyielding determination to provide education to girls. The students also highlighted her role in founding the first school for girls in Pune and her broader influence in advocating for women's rights. Through this program, students gained a deeper understanding of Savitribai Phule's legacy. The event not only educated the students about her life and work but also fostered a sense of respect and admiration for her relentless efforts in women's empowerment and societal reform.

The event was attended by Dr. S. A. Desai (Vice-Principal), all members of the teaching staff, and students from both D and B Pharmacy courses. It was a valuable learning experience for all attendees and emphasized the importance of education and equality.

Conclusion:

The birthday celebration of Savitribai Phule at Chetana College of Pharmacy, Sardewadi successfully achieved its objective of educating students about her contributions to society, especially in the realm of women's education and empowerment. The event not only honored her memory but also inspired students to continue her work by promoting social justice and equality in their future endeavors.

Amore
Cultural Incharge

Principal
Principal
Chetana College of Pharmacy
Sardewadi, Tal. Indapur, Dist. Pune